Preparing you to pass the first time

Securities Exam Prep

“Designed for you to pass your Securities licensing exam the first time!”

Why get Series 6 & 63 licensed?

As a licensed Life Agent, the series 6 & 63 license is the minimum securities license with your Life Agent license required to solicit, offer, and sell variable products. Variable products are life insurance products tied to the stock market (equities) through the use of mutual funds. Offer your clients a solution to fixed rates!

Focus on what is necessary to pass the first time! Simplify the process of preparing for your exam with focus on key points and concepts. Unlike the insurance licensing exam, there are no Prelicensing requirements. That leaves it up to you, the student, to prestudy. When left on your own most people ask what is the least I can do expecting the best results. You will get what you put into it.

Prepare (prestudy) → Attend the exam prep → Study → Pass the exam

Visit our website and watch our video on how to prepare for the series 6 and 63 exam. (available 2/17/2015)
